Dear Paul:

Enclosed is the confidential record sheet on David P. Wilson along with a charter renewal application with his signature.

Also attached to his confidential record sheet are several press clippings- to date I do not know the results of his trial if there has been one.

In addition I have enclosed additional people to be put in the confidential file, what you see is all I can find using my police resources.

I understand from a conversation recently with a P.I. the mother of one of the boys molested by Wilson is suing him. The P.I. did not think she was going to name the BSA in the suit but you might want to alert risk management to the possibility.

We need a better system at the time of registration to gather the information we need after something goes wrong. I hope the new adult application will address that need.

Hope the enclosed information is helpful.

Sincerely,

Lawrence V. Pegg

Scout leader pleads nolo to risk of injury charges

6/10/87

By SEAN MESSICK
Staff Writer

The Ashford Boy Scout leader accused of molesting two boys during a campout changed his plea from not guilty to nolo contendere in a session of Windham Superior Court at the Windham Town Hall in Willimantic Tuesday.

David Paul Wilson, 40, of Turnpike Road, Ashford, changed his plea on two counts of risk of injury to a minor, a felony. He still has two counts of fourth-degree sexual assault, a class A misdemeanor, to which he pleaded not guilty earlier. Those charges were not addressed in court Tuesday.

Wilson is alleged to have molested two boys sleeping in the same tent, aged 11 and 12, on the night of March 20 at the J. N. Webster Boy Scout Reservation off Route 44 in Warrenville.

It was complaints from parents to state police in Stafford which led to an investigation and Wilson's subsequent arrest, according to the detective assigned to the case. Wilson has been free on a $5,000 bond he posted shortly after his arrest March 26.

Although a plea of nolo contendere is not an admission of guilt, Judge Michael P. Conway reminded Wilson and his attorney, Timothy Smith, that it was "an automatic finding of guilty," and would have the same effect.

Assistant state's attorney Mark Solak told Conway that a plea agreement set the state's recommended sentence at seven years in prison, suspended after serving three, with three years probation, with Smith reserving the right to argue for less. A condition of Wilson's probation is that he have absolutely not contact with either of the victims in the case. Upon hearing that condition, Wilson said, "obviously."

Conway also asked Wilson if he realized he was facing a possible 20-year jail sentence, since the maximum penalty is 10 years in jail and a judge could make those terms consecutive. Wilson said he understood what the maximum penalty was.

Conway also told Wilson that if a judge imposes a sentence longer than the one recommended by Solak, Wilson will have the opportunity to change his plea again.

According to Solak, The 11-year-old boy involved woke in the middle of the night to find himself in Wilson's sleeping bag. Solak said the boy had been in his own sleeping bag upon falling asleep. Wilson is then supposed to have massaged the 11-year-old's penis, and placed the boy's hand on his own penis.

Solak said Wilson is also supposed to have touched the penis of the 12-year-old in the tent through his pants. Solak said Wilson is alleged to have hugged and kissed the 12-year-old before retiring for the night.

Wilson's case was continued to July 28 for sentencing, when the results of a pre-sentence investigation should be ready. Superior court clerk said the sexual assault charges may also be disposed of on that date.

Scout leader released on bond

By SEAN MESSICK
Staff Writer

A boy scout leader arrested Thursday and charged with molesting two boys during an overnight campout this month has been released on bond and will be arraigned in Windham Superior Court April 7.

David Paul Wilson, 40, of Turnpike Road, Ashford, was to be arraigned in Putnam Thursday shortly after his arrest, but court adjourned early and the arraignment was rescheduled.

Wilson, charged with risk of injury to a minor, a felony, and sexual assault in the fourth degree, a class A misdemeanor, posted a $5,000 bond.

If convicted, the leader of Ashford's Boy Scout Troop 92 faces a maximum 10 years in prison or a fine of up to $5,000 for the felony count. The sexual assault charge carries a maximum of one year in jail or a fine of up to $1,000.

The incident prompting the arrest allegedly took place at the J.N. Webster campground on Route 44 March 20, during an overnight campout, police said. Wilson is alleged to have molested two boys, ages 11 and 12.

Parents' complaints to state police at Troop C, Stafford, led to an investigation by detectives and Wilson's subsequent arrest, police said.

Boy scout leader faces sexual assault charges

An Ashford scout leader was arrested this morning and charged with sexually molesting two 11-year-old boys, state police in Stafford said today.

David Wilson, 40, of Turnpike Road, Ashford, was arrested at his Ashford home at 9:34 a.m. today and charged with two counts of risk of injury to a minor and two counts of sexual assault in the fourth degree, according to police.

Police said the arrest was made on a warrant issued Wednesday by Windham Superior Court. Wilson was turned over to the Windham County sheriff and taken to superior court in Putnam for arraignment. He was expected to be arraigned by early this afternoon.

No word was available on whether bond for Wilson had been set or posted. The warrant was issued based on complaints from parents and work by state police investigators, police said.

Scoutmaster accused of assaulting two boys

By KATHERINE FARRISH

ASHFORD — A 40-year-old Ashford scoutmaster was charged Thursday with two counts of sexual assault in connection with a weekend incident in which two boys were molested at a Boy Scout camp, police and scouting officials said.

David P. Wilson, of Route 89 in Ashford, was charged with two counts of fourth-degree sexual assault and risk of injury to a minor, state police said Thursday.

Wilson was released on a $5,000 bond and is scheduled to appear in Superior Court in Willimantic April 7, police said.

The incidents occurred Friday night at the beginning of a weekend camping trip that Wilson had arranged for his troop at the June Norcross

Webster Scout Reservation on Route 44, said Lawrence V. Pegg, executive director of the Indian Trails Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

One of the boys told another adult on the camping trip and his parents of the incident when he returned home later in the weekend, Pegg said.

The parents talked to the local troop council chairman, who notified Pegg on Monday at the Indian Trails regional office in Norwich.

The same day, a decision was made to remove Wilson as scoutmaster and to end any association between him and the Boy Scouts of America, Pegg said. The incident was also reported to state police, he said.

Wilson's Boy Scout troop was made up of boys ages 11 to 18, Pegg said. The two boys involved were in that age group, he said.

SUBJECT: David Wilson

Dear Larry:

The above named individual first came to our attention in March 1986. It has now been approximately two years and we would like to complete this file.

I am again enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet which must be completed with as much information as available. We also need a copy of an application or other document with Mr. Wilson's signature. Both of these items aid in the identification process.

I would like any newspaper clippings, court records, or other material you might have. We need a complete file so if either one of us are not in our present jobs the file is up-to-date.

Thanks for your help.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

Dear Larry:

I have communicated to you on several occasions concerning the above named individual. We need a Confidential Record Sheet so we can identify Mr. Wilson should he attempt registration in another area. I am enclosing another sheet for you to complete with as much information as possible.

It was indicated in your telephone call of September 18 that you were going to send newspaper clippings and other information concerning this situation. We would like to have this information to strengthen our file.

We would also like to know the outcome of the legal action when it is completed. We know this may take several months, but keep supplying us with information as it proceeds.

Please let us know if we can be of any help.

Dear Larry:

We would like for you to send us the information which you have available, at this time, concerning the above-named individual. I am enclosing another Confidential Record Sheet which I would like to have completed so we may identify Mr. Wilson.

We would also like to have any newspaper clippings or court records which, I understand, you have. This will help to build our file and substantiate our refusal of registration attempts.

When the legal action is complete, we would then like to have the outcome and any sentencing which might take place. In the meantime, please send us whatever you have so that we may build our file and make certain that all this information is in one location.

Thank you for your help in protecting the youth of America.

Dear Larry:

We received information in March concerning the above-named individual. At that time, it was indicated that he had been arrested and charged with sexual assault on minors.

We sent you a Confidential Record Sheet with our "Maintaining Standards of Leadership" in late April. We have not heard from you since that time and would like to have the Confidential Record Sheet returned so that we may identify Mr. Wilson should he move to another location or try to register in some other council.

We would also like to know the outcome of any legal action. Any newspaper clippings or other material which we could add to our file will help to strengthen our refusal of future registration attempts.

Let us know if we may be of help to you.

THE FACTS:

David Wilson, about 40, Scoutmaster Troop 34, Warrensville Baptist Church, Ashford, Conn. was arrested this week and charged with two counts of injuries to minors and two counts of sexual assault on minors. He is to be arraigned today on the charges and is currently in custody.

The information the council has obtained indicates that the unit was on a camping trip Friday, March 20 at the council camp, Camp Webster, when Wilson -- who has been Scoutmaster for about six months -- is alleged to have been unclothed in a sleeping bag with each of the boys at separate times and is alleged to have fondled them.

One youth told an older brother when he returned home, and the brother informed the parents. The matter was taken to the troop committee and the arrest followed.

ACTION OR RECOMMENDATIONS:

The council revoked Wilson's registration on March 23 and informed its executive board that night. Whether the council attorney is aware of the situation is uncertain, however, Sandell and Scout Executive Larry Pegg, have appeared on at least three tv stations and stories have already been widely carried in the state's media.

Sandell feels it is important to be open with the media. I have advised that he not confirm much beyond the accused's name and former BSA affiliation, and refer further details to police agencies. The council will forward the Standards of Leadership paperwork to Ernst. Sandell also says the council has asked the youths' school to intervene in a counseling role with the two youngsters.
